

ANDY FREDERICKS

Veritext Regional Vice President | Mountain Region

BRIEF INTRODUCTION

Andy Fredericks is the Regional Vice President for Veritext Legal Solutions in the Mountain Region, where he is responsible for overseeing business operations across Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Nevada, Utah, and Colorado. His leadership emphasizes organic growth, exceptional customer experience, employee development, and industry innovation, all aimed at maximizing value for stakeholders.

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Since joining Veritext in November 2014, Andy has cultivated a deep understanding of the court reporting industry through various roles, including Account Executive, National Director of Reporter Engagement, and Director of Operations in California. This diverse experience has provided him with a holistic view of the industry, enabling him to champion Veritext's cutting-edge services and technologies. He is a sought-after speaker, having presented at numerous esteemed events and contributed to CEU and CLE courses. In addition to his industry expertise, Andy holds a Lean Six Sigma Yellow Belt Certification and is a graduate of the Rutgers Business School Executive Leadership Program, equipping him with advanced management methodologies.

Before his tenure at Veritext, Andy was the Operational Partner at Fredericks Reporting & Litigation Services in Austin, Texas. Working alongside his father, Bill Fredericks, a respected court reporter, Andy provided comprehensive services to clients across Texas. His background also includes years as a deposition videographer, further enhancing his understanding of the challenges faced by legal professionals throughout the deposition process.

With a commitment to excellence and a passion for advancing the legal industry, Andy continues to lead initiatives that foster growth and innovation at Veritext Legal Solutions.
