From deposition to trial, learn how to make mobile apps work for you:

Scheduling Apps

From booking depositions to client intake meetings, we will look at the best and most organized calendaring and scheduling apps available.

Research Apps

Access expansive law libraries, legal compendiums, and even integrate citation analysis tools as you conduct research on the go.

Realtime Apps

Harness realtime technology in the deposition room with these powerful apps.

Document Review Apps

Search, highlight, mark up, manage, sign, annotate, download and run reports on transcripts and exhibits from anywhere at any time.

Paperless Deposition Apps

Tired of lugging 5 boxes of documents to your deposition only to introduce just a few? Now there is a more efficient way to work with your documents and share them electronically right from your iPad.

Trial Presentation Apps

With pizzazz and power, electronic tablets can be effective tools for presenting at trial. Create animated 3D charts and unique presentation transitions.

iPads for Judges and Jurors

As we see it, iPads in the hands of judges and jurors is the wave of the future: innovative, exciting, cost-effective, and interesting. We'll discuss the most recent experiments and developments in this exciting new use of iPads.
