

Claims & Risk Managers Prefer Veritext

Veritext understands the needs of insurance carriers and corporate risk managers. As the largest court reporting company in the world, our expertise in managing the deposition-related demands of insurance carriers, self-insured corporations, and third-party administrators is unparalleled. Get started now — you will be surprised how easy it is.

Superior Technology Tools

Veritext provides productivity enhancing tools to support the efficient administration of litigated claims. There are tools specifically created to support the management of deposition-related materials for the in-house legal team, claims adjusters/TPA and your outside counsel. Select the right tools to meet the needs of your case.

- Online Access. Easy-to-use transcript and exhibit downloading, and unique search capabilities allow claims handlers and outside counsel to find what they need when they need it.
- Video & Virtual Depositions. Video options minimize wasted time and build more compelling presentations including video conferencing, synchronized transcripts, virtual depositions, and real-time text streaming.
- Mobile Applications. Veritext Mobile gives your team access to transcripts and exhibits, where and when they need them on Apple & Android devices - including instant notifications when transcripts are available for review.

National Coverage & Quality Guarantee

Our national footprint, with 30 offices around the country, enables us to schedule depositions anywhere with a single call. Quality is assured through our national network of the industry's top professionals.
