

Coverage without Compromise

WHEN OTHERS GIVE UP - WE GO THE EXTRA MILE (LITERALLY).

THE CHALLENGE

A Virginia law firm needed court reporting services in a remote town in South Dakota, an area with no local reporter availability. After reaching out to multiple providers without success, the risk of delay became a real concern.

They needed a partner who could find a solution where others could not.

OUR SOLUTION

Rather than viewing location as a limitation, Veritext approached the request with flexibility and resolve.

Drawing on our international network, we secured a highly qualified reporter located over 300 miles away and coordinated travel to ensure on-site coverage. All logistics were carefully coordinated to guarantee on-time seamless execution.

THE RESULT

The proceeding moved forward exactly as scheduled, without delay or disruption.

The firm later shared that Veritext was the only firm willing and able to meet their needs.

THE TAKEAWAY

By employing our service-first mindset, removing geographic barriers, and thinking outside the box, Veritext ensured the case stayed on track.

No matter how unexpected the location or demanding the timeline, we show up with the same excellence you have come to expect. Because your proceedings don't wait for convenient circumstances, and neither do we.
