Work Smarter.

With Veritext's Advanced Technologies & Superior Court Reporting Solutions

Veritext streamlines the deposition process and helps you to manage the most complex cases. Proprietary technology coupled with the highest level of security compliance, including HIPAA, PII and SAS 70, impart confidence of working with the industry leader.

As the global leader in court reporting services, our commitment to personal service and our expertise in managing the demands of law firms of all sizes, enterprise corporations and the firms that service them, is unparalleled.

Skilled in complex multiparty litigation including: insurance, environmental, pharmaceutical, intellectual property, securities litigation, commercial litigation, negligence, bankruptcy, employment law and antitrust cases, Veritext allows you to focus on your practice while we focus on your depositions.

Trusted.

39,000 attorneys, including many Fortune 500 companies, choose Veritext as their preferred provider each year.

Unparalleled Service

Trusted Experience

Veritext has been serving the legal community since 1997. With extensive experience in all types of litigation, Veritext is keenly aware of the needs of our clients, such as quality, cost control and timely delivery.

Single-Source Service Provider

Veritext will arrange for any deposition service requested. With one phone call, or by using VIP21 to schedule a court reporter, videographer, interpreter or conference room.

Experienced Case Managers

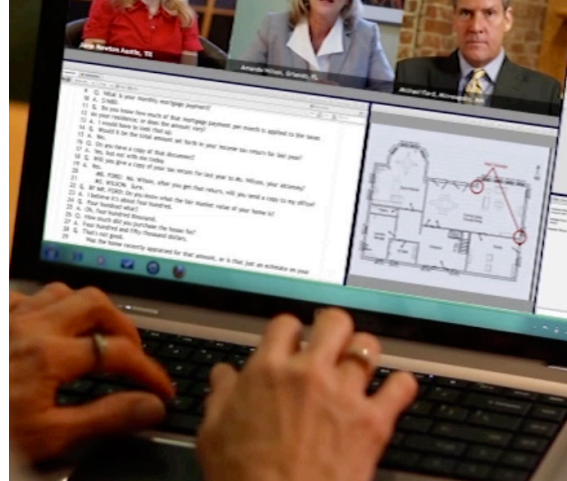

A experienced case manager will be assigned to oversee all deposition scheduling, master exhibit books, indexing and document management.

Dedicated Support

Veritext offers a 24/7 client services team with the ability to handle logistics for out-of-town services and IT support for high-end technologies.

The best thing about Veritext, for me, is that you don't have to ask twice.

Attorney, Cozen O'Connor PC

Court Reporting

Highly Experienced Reporters

Providing interactive realtime and deposition text streaming. High-quality work, delivered when and where you need it.

State-of-the-Art Deposition Suites

Advanced facilities equipped with technology, security, wireless internet, friendly staff and complimentary lunch and refreshments served throughout the day.

National & International Coverage

Seamless deposition support around the corner, and around the world.

Customized Transcription Services / Closed Captioning

For unique situations that arise, including closed captioning for live broadcast and videos.

Privacy & Data Security

HIPAA, PII & SSAE 16 Compliant

High levels of security ensure that confidential personal information and medical records are protected and safeguarded.

Remote Depositions

Veritext Virtual

Save travel time and expense by deposing witnesses remotely. Share exhibits in realtime with up to 100 participants. Easily connect with just your webcam-equipped laptop or computer with an internet connection.

Video Technologies

Legal Videographers

Experienced legal video specialists, using the latest in broadcast-quality video camera and production technology, will ensure quality in every step of your video production.

Video Streaming

View streamed video depositions securely from any location.

Transcript Synchronization

The transcript text is synchronized with the video for fast, accurate clips when analyzing testimony or presentation at trial, mediation or arbitration.

Videoconferencing

Allows you to attend depositions or meetings, conduct pre-trial preparation of out-of-town witnesses and consult with remote experts without the expense and inconvenience of travel.

Video On Demand

View and share synchronized transcripts and video, create and edit video clips, collaborate in multi-user forums, and manage your transcripts with tools that link exhibits, issue code, annotate and highlight.

Accident Reconstruction

"Day in the Life" and accident reconstruction can make your case come to life for the trier of fact. Portions of the video that you select can be extracted for effective presentation at trial.

Exhibit Management

Exhibit Management Solution (XMS)

Organize, present, and store exhibits electronically with the ability to view your exhibits in realtime.

Native Evidence Capture

Display electronic documents to a witness during a deposition and record mouse movements and keystrokes on the computer in realtime.

Training Programs

Educational & CLE-Accredited Programs

Presentations, live CLE training sessions and webinars available on various topics such as technology for depositions, productivity through the use of mobile apps and more. Topics can be customized to your request. Visit www.veritext.com/cle.

Instead of flying to a deposition, I used the Veritext Virtual service. It's an affordable option that allowed me to take the deposition from my office. Flawless technology.
